

Mental Health First-Aid Certification - 12 Hours

Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) training, developed and recognized by the Mental Health Commission of Canada (MHCC), is a globally recognized certification program for adults interacting with individuals aged 18 and older facing mental health challenges. Covering four common mental health disorders, successful participants receive a certificate recognized by the MHCC.

Regular Price: $599

Price: $499

Mastering Tough Conversations - 8 Hours

Through the Everything DiSC Productive Conflict program, participants explore their personal conflict tendencies and understand the differences in others. By combining teaching and experiential learning, individuals acquire practical tools to effectively navigate tough conversations in both daily interactions and performance management scenarios. Price: Call for Merit Contractors Association member pricing

Contact for exclusive pricing!

Pathways to Leadership - 24 Hours

This virtual 8-module leadership development program introduces learners to the competencies essential for effective leadership, team building, and fostering trust in relationships. Through a blend of personal insight and technical skills, participants gain a deeper understanding of their strengths, develop action plans for growth, and learn strategic management aligned with organizational goals.

Regular Price: $2595

Price: $2195

HR for HR

HR for HR was created to be the missing LINK for additional expertise and resources and provides an extension to your HR department or organization. Whether your business is small, medium or large, our team can offer short term support, or long term collaboration and project work.

Please note: Workshop packages of 24 hours or more are eligible for the SaskCan Job Grant. (terms apply)

Contact: Steve Atkinson - steve@morrisinteractive.ca | 306-250-4707