

Looking after your employees is the best way to find and keep great workers. Adding a retirement savings option to your compensation package will make you a BEST-IN-CLASS employer.

MERIT SASKATCHEWAN GROUP RRSP PROGRAM

FIVE GREAT REASONS TO CONSIDER A GROUP RRSP

1. ATTRACT THE BEST

Today's performers are looking for more than just wages in their compensation. Retirement considerations are a valuable recruitment tool.

2. RETAIN YOUR SUPERSTARS

If you're looking for a way to KEEP those performers, there's no better way than a Group RRSP.

3. VARY YOUR COMPENSATION

An increase in wage isn't always the best answer to building your compensation package. A Group RRSP can provide a tax-effective way of adding value for your employees.

4. SET YOURSELF APART

Only 19 percent of Canadian small businesses have retirement plans. Offering a Group RRSP will set you apart from the many companies that aren't.

5. LOOK AFTER YOUR PEOPLE

While your SCIP benefit plan supports your employees' wellness, a Group RRSP will provide them with the retirement security they need.
